LOCUST GROVE SCHOOL.

Miss Madge Dowling spent last Saturday in San Francisco.

Our teacher, Mr. T. N. Badger, has left us for the holidays.

The Misses Lindberg of San Francisco are visiting Locust Grove.

Mrs. S. A. Silvey was at the Grove to-day visiting her son Sydney.

Miss Ora Lawrence who left us recently for the State Normal School, writes cheerfully of life at the Garden City.

Miss Della Pauli and her brother Clayton are spending their vacation at their home at Terrace Hill near Sonoma.

Miss Mitchell left yesterday morning for Berkeley, San Francisco and other places, to visit friends before making her departure for Portland, Oregon.

Miss Landsborough who in company with her sister, Mrs. H. M. Whitely, has been visiting relatives in Florin, Sacramento county, returned to the Grove on Wednesday evening last. She came by way of San Francisco to see Irving and Terry.

Locust Grove welcomes one more boy to the ranks in the person of Edgar Lindsay. He arrived here last week in company with Dr. A. A. Waterhouse who made us a brief but pleasant visit.

The following scholars are spending the vacation in San Francisco: Lucille Kaiser, Stewart and Malcolm Elliott, Ralph Gwin, and Kenneth Mays. Cyrenius, Moltke has gone to Palo Alto.

Our old friend and school-mate Romaldo Diez Martinez and his cousin, Miss Tucker, were at the Grove on Sunday. Mr. Martinez will leave us in a few days for his home at Culiacan, Mexico. We wish him well.

The art exhibition held in the schoolroom on Saturday evening, Sept. 9th., was a success in every way. The highest talent of Locust Grove was displayed and the work, which was all sold at auction, brought handsome prices. The proceeds were turned over to the Locust Grove Lawn Tennis Club.

THERE was a meeting of the California Amateur Press Association, in San Francisco, last Saturday. The editor of the RAY acknowledges an invitation to attend, and regrets being unable to make the trip.

LOCUST GROVE to-day is quiet. Vacation has begun and most of the students have gone to their homes to spend the week's holiday. The absence of so many faces is not unnoticed, and the merry voices that usually make the school grounds ring with shouts are not heard. There has been no mustering of the Boys' Brigade, no rallies at tennis; even the schoolroom must have missed the "detained boys," and the creek its fishermen. But it will last only for a week, and in good time on Monday morning, October 1st, we hope to see every boy in line, better prepared by a week's rest to continue his scholastic duties.

Mr. Wm. Merriam spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Oakland.

Mrs. M. E. Cassebohm is visiting relatives at Oak Knoll, Napa County.

Miss Smythe, a former teacher of the San Luis School, is taking a special course in English at the Stanford University. There were 150 who took the entrance examination for this course but only thirty-six who passed—Miss Smythe being among the number.

"Toodles" has gone over to the silent majority. Toodles was the pet dog of Mr. Chas.
Ohms of Embareadero, and was a good natured little puppy Someone, though, had said he was "too cute to live," and the poor offended little fellow

took a quantity of poisoned meat, which he found temptingly displayed at the gate of a neighbor's premises.

Misses Clara Cheney, Pauline Bates and Mamie Church of Sonoma visited friends in town Wednesday afternoon.

SONOMA VALLEY NEWS.

Miss Evelyn Brown of Sonoma is visiting friends in Berkeley.

Master Rodger Pease of San Francisco was a guest at the Mervyn Hotel, Glen Ellen, for a few days of this week.

Mr. G. H. Hotz is having a handsome two-story residence constructed on a lot adjoining Dr. Davis' on Broadway.

Mr. Sam. Lewis, an engineer on the Sonoma Valley Railroad, has gone East on a three-months' leave of absence.

Many thanks to the "Cyclone," that sparkling sheet of Santa Rosa, for the article published in their last issue about us.

Burglars entered the residence of Justice Cheney on Tuesday night and made away with a gold watch and some coin. The thieves left no clew and will likely go unpunished.

A harvest dance for the benefit of the public school was given at Los Guillicos Warm Springs' pavilion last night. Calico dresses and overalls were the approved costumes.

Miss Mamie Church gave a party to a number of friends on Wednesday evening. The time was pleasantly occupied with dancing, music, games, and moonlight strolls. After refreshments, which were served at a late hour, the party dispersed.
